Southern University at Shreveport

Division of Allied Health Sciences and Nursing

Dear Applicant:

We certainly appreciate your interest in Southern University at Shreveport and the Radiologic Technology Program. Upon completing the curriculum, the student will receive an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Radiologic Technology. The Joint Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology (JRCERT) accredits the program.

Applicants to the Radiologic Technology Program must meet general admission requirements to the University as outlined in the University Catalog. Southern University at Shreveport is an open admission institution; however, acceptance into the Radiologic Technology Program is done by a selection process. Applicants are selected for clinical admission on a competitive basis. Acceptance into the clinical portion of the program requires full-time commitment to combine both clinical and classroom instruction.

The American Registry of Radiologic Technologists reserves the right to deny individuals to take the National Registry if convicted of a felony or misdemeanor. Individuals who have been arrested, charged with, pled guilty, or no contest to, or been sentenced for any criminal offense or misdemeanor in any state must contact the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists regarding this offense ARRT (651) 687-0048. The final directive of the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists will determine the individual's eligibility for consideration for admission to the Radiology clinical setting. The ARRT clearance letter is to be submitted to the Radiologic Technology program director before clinical orientation.

American Registry of Radiologic Technologists
1255 Northland Drive, St. Paul, Minnesota 55120-1155

Applications are available March –May for the fall admission. The number of students selected each year for entry depends on the number of available openings at the program's local clinical, educational centers.

All completed application packets must be submitted on May 24, 2022, to 610 Texas Suite 212 by 5:00 pm. Applications submitted by mail must be postmarked by May 24, 2022. Only those who have met the academic requirements and provided all the requested information will be considered for an interview. Meeting the MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS DOES NOT GUARANTEE ADMISSION INTO THE PROGRAM. Applicants will be notified by mail as to acceptance or non-acceptance into the program.

Southern University at Shreveport assures equal opportunity for all qualified persons without regard to race, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap, marital status, or veteran's status in admissions, participation, or employment in the programs and activities of the college. Students needing reasonable accommodations are encouraged to contact the Section 504 Coordinator.

If you have any questions, please contact the Radiologic Technology telephone this department at (318) 670-9646.

Sincerely yours,

Shelia S. Swift, Director

The Mission of the Radiologic Technology Program

The Radiologic Technology Program of Southern University at Shreveport offers an Associate of Applied Science Degree, which prepares students for careers in Radiography. Dedicated to excellence in Radiography education, the program promotes an environment, which fosters the development of critical thinking, creativity, problem-solving, and cooperative learning through a wide range of instructional methods. The program's offerings include learning experiences from a variety of disciplines to provide a diverse foundation for science and radiography. Using the classroom and clinical setting as the main thrust for enhancing the learning process, students are prepared to function as qualified radiographers in hospitals, clinics, and physicians' offices.

Program Goals

Goal 1- Students will demonstrate clinical competence.

Goal 2- Students will develop critical thinking and problem-solving skills.

Goal 3- Students will demonstrate effective written and oral communication skills

Goal 4- Students to display professionalism in the workplace

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Radiologic Technology Program, students will able to:

- Demonstrate effective patient care skills.
- Effectively demonstrate oral and written communication skills.
- Utilize critical thinking and problem-solving skills by formulating and applying correct technical factors to produce diagnostic images.
- Utilize critical thinking and problem solving to produce diagnostic images based on patient and equipment variables
- Demonstrate proficiency in radiographic positioning.
- Display professional behavior in the clinical environment

QUALIFICATIONS

Personal

Applicants must be 18 years of age or older. Individuals must be in good physical and mental health. Good physical and mental health is necessary for students to meet physical performance standards and possess the clarity of mind needed for healthcare duties. Applicants must be able and willing to work with sick or disabled persons. They should also have the ability to think using sympathetic, pleasant, cordial, versatile, and ambitious reasoning critically. Applicants must also be dependable, responsible, and reliable. Students will be responsible for the rules and regulations in the University Student Handbook, the Program Student Handbook, and the ARRT Code of Ethics. Upon receipt of your Application to the program, you will be required to submit to both the State of Louisiana and the National Sexual Predator background checks. Convictions hindering your participation in clinical activities will prohibit your acceptance in this program. If you have specific questions relating to this requirement, please make an appointment with the program director and prepare to present any questionable criminal history to ARRT for ethics review. Applicants must be willing to work with low-levels of radiation exposure.

- Possess a high school diploma or equivalent

- Have completed twelve (12) semester hours at Southern University at Shreveport by the application deadline.
- Score on the ACT or Southern University Placement Test sufficient to place the student in college-level courses; and possess a solid educational background in Biology/Science.
- Have acquired a cumulative GPA of at least 2.5 in all college courses

Students are conditionally accepted into the program. After conditional acceptance to the radiography program, proof of the following additional requirements must be submitted to the radiography program by the required dates: (Please note any associated fees will be the student's responsibility.)

- a. A completed physical examination form includes verifying current vaccinations and titers (Hepatitis B, Rubella, Rubeola, Mumps, PPD, Diphtheria-Tetanus, Varicella and COVID status).
- b. A copy of the American Heart Association's current certification in "CPR for the Health Care Worker." before entering the clinic.
- c. Students are advised that influenza vaccinations are also a requirement each Fall semester as mandated by various clinical settings.
- d. Acceptable Drug Screening and Criminal Background Checks. All allied health students are required to submit a pre-clinical urine drug screen according to the policy of the Allied Health Science and Nursing Programs at SUSLA. The drug screen is completed at the student's expense. At their discretion, clinical sites may also require an additional drug screening and a criminal background check before allowing students into the clinical setting. The clinical facilities (hospitals, etc.) require criminal background checks before students attend the clinical sites. In addition, SUSLA and the clinical sites may require random drug testing or drug testing for reasonable cause. Generally, the urine drug test screens for alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or drug-impaired judgment while in the clinical setting. Testing positive for the screening or evidence of tampering with a specimen will disqualify students from participation in the clinical assignment.
- e. In addition to drug screening for patients' and healthcare workers' safety, allied health students must also undergo a background check performed by Southern Research at the student's expense. Your acceptance into the program at SUSLA will not be final until SUSLA has received your background check information from the reporting agencies and the background check is clear of disqualifying offenses. As evidenced by a criminal background check, certain criminal activities may disqualify students from clinical participation. Students are advised that the inability to gain clinical education experiences can result in failure to meet program objectives and outcomes. These circumstances may prevent final acceptance into or progression through the program and ultimately result in dismissal from the program.
 - In keeping with the program's due process policies, if a student disagrees with the accuracy of the information obtained, s/he may request a confirmatory test and or a review of the background information's accuracy. All requests must be made in writing to the Dean of Allied Health Sciences and Nursing and must include relevant information or extenuating circumstances supporting the request. A designated committee will review the results and the request and make the final decision regarding the student's request. The student will be notified in writing of the committee's decision within ten (10) working days

Note:

Certificate Eligibility Because the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) can deny certification, applicants with any of the listed violations below should complete an Ethics Pre-Application Review (available at www.rrt.org) before entering clinical setting, or more than six months before program completion. These violations include:

- Criminal proceedings including misdemeanor charges and convictions, felony charges and convictions, a military court-martial
- Disciplinary actions were taken by a state or federal regulatory authority or certification board; or
- Honor code violations.

The Louisiana State Board of Radiologic Technologists Examiners can also deny licensure if the board feels that such denial is in the public's interest.

Applicants who have prior arrest or convictions for a felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic citation are advised to seek clarification of eligibility to sit for the ARRT Registry examination before entering the clinical program. The ARRT does maintain the standards of conduct, and a felony may exclude an applicant. Applicants should inform the Program Director and complete the ARRT Pre-Application Review of Eligibility for Certification when accepted into the program. Your clinical acceptance is conditional. Applicants that are not cleared by the ARRT conditional acceptance will be withdrawn. Please visit www.rrt.org, request for ethics review. The fee associated with this Application is $100.00 and should be mailed directly to the ARRT.

Revised:01/2017;02/2018;02/2019;02/2020/2021/2022

Technical Requirements & Standards

Each student accepted into the Radiologic Technology Program's clinical phase must have the ability to adhere to the following technical, physical, and mental standards.

- Assist with radiography of a corpse
- Communicate effectively with patients and various members of the healthcare team, including the ability to perceive nonverbal communication and use appropriate medical terminology both orally and in writing
- Ability to work various shifts including early am and evening rotation
- Ability to travel and attend professional meetings and competitions
- Ability to travel and arrive on time to area clinical, educational facilities
- Ability to act as a team player
- Ability to work well with others, including those with difficult personalities
- Ability to practice cultural diversity

- Ability to set up and manipulate x-ray equipment in a safe, reliable, and efficient manner
- Ability to practice and apply appropriate radiation protection and safety measures
- Ability to perceive the relationships of internal organs, the x-ray tube, and the image receptor in order to obtain radiographic images of diagnostic value;
- Ability to adjust machine controls and arrange and adjust various radiographic support devices;
- Ability to handle radiographic cassettes and imaging plates, develop radiographic film, and process digital radiographic images;
- Ability to perform reaching, lifting, and bending in order to assist or move patients and equipment in a safe, reliable, and efficient manner, with or without assistance;
- Ability to recognize and respond to adverse changes in patient condition, including those requiring emergency medical intervention;
- Ability to evaluate radiographs to determine their acceptability for diagnostic purposes;
- Ability to respect patients' confidentiality and demonstrate integrity, a motivation to serve, and have concern for others.

Physical & Mental Requirements

Physical stamina is essential in this occupation because technologists are on their feet for long periods and may lift or turn disabled patients. Technologists work at diagnostic machines but also may perform some procedures at patients' bedsides. Technologists and students must be able to perform the following tasks that include numerous physical and mental skills. Students are continuously in contact with patients who need physical assistance. Therefore, students must be able to:

1. Hear faint sounds from a distance of 15 ft.
2. Far vision correctable in one eye to 20/20 and 20/40 in the other eye
3. Lift 20 pounds from the floor; carry 10 ft. and place on a surface 36 inches high
4. Frequent lifting and carry up to 50 lbs. may be required
5. Push/pull 1 to 20 lbs. force continuously, 20 to 50 lbs. occasionally force, 50 to 75 lbs. force rarely
6. Work with arms overhead for 15 to 20 minutes at a time
7. Safely and successfully manipulate and transport mobile radiographic equipment
8. Endure observing and working, hands-on, with severely injured trauma patients or critically ill patients
9. Ability to bend forward when lifting using proper body mechanic
10. Ability to use manual dexterity quickly and accurately

For those applicants selected for admission, a physical is required. The applicant must submit a program-approved health form completed and signed by a physician of the applicant's choice confirming that the applicant is in good physical and mental health and possess the required physical and mental abilities to function satisfactorily within the program and the occupation.

Admissions and Progression Policies

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

CLINICAL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS FOR ADMISSIONS

Radiologic Technology is a health care profession that may require very strenuous physical activity. Applicants must be physically capable of successfully performing procedures both safely and expeditiously. The twelve (12) activities listed below are examples of the profession's kind of work. Using these standards, please assess your ability to perform these tasks.

1. Lift, move and transport a patient from bed to wheelchair/stretchers or from wheelchair/stretchers to radiographic table without causing undue pain or discomfort to the patient or oneself.
2. Position the patient for various radiographic examinations without injury to the patient.
3. Check patient identification, positioning, imaging field placement, and alignment and work with and assist the patient with being positioned on a standard radiologic exam table that has a height of 36" above the floor level.
4. Reach and manipulate the x-ray equipment into proper positions, including imaging and treatment of tables, x-ray tubes, nuclear detectors, radiotherapy equipment, related collimators, control consoles, computer console, x-ray processor, surgical c-arm, ultrasound equipment, and mobile x-ray equipment.
5. Respond instantly to emergencies that may otherwise jeopardize a patient's physical state if speedy care is not administered.
6. Handle and utilize materials needed in various radiologic procedures, including pharmaceuticals, vials, syringes, sterile linens and instruments, catheters, intravenous systems, dressings, and other patient care items.
7. Handle and use cassettes, imaging plates, image mechanisms, cassette holders, pass boxes, and immobilization devices.
8. Evaluate written requisitions for radiographic procedures.
9. Effectively communicate the explanation of the procedure to the patient and give proper instructions.
10. Obtain the medical history of patients and communicate this information to the Radiologists when applicable.
11. Evaluate the quality of radiographic images regarding the exposure factors, image quality, and proper positioning of anatomical parts.
12. Transport mobile equipment to assigned areas of the hospital in a timely and cautious manner.
13. Perform venipuncture procedures without assistance.

PLEASE NOTE**

SUSLA reserves the right to verify the students' performance level related to the aforementioned technical standards.

Rotational Site and Time Agreement

The Southern University at Shreveport Radiologic Technology Program require clinical students various clinical shift assignments such as 5:00 AM-1:00 PM; 6:00 AM-2:00 PM; 7:00 AM-3:00 PM; 8:00 AM-4:00 PM; 8:00 AM-5:00 PM; 11:00 AM to 7:00 PM, and 3:00 PM-11:00 PM. Rotational assignments are to be determined by the Clinical Coordinator.

I, _____, understand that if accepted into the clinical aspect of the Radiologic Technology Program of Southern University at Shreveport I must adhere to all rotational assignments. I understand that I will work at various clinical, educational centers that may not be limited to the Shreveport-Bossier City area. I will make all necessary arrangements to report to my assigned clinical site at the time specified by the Clinical Coordinator.

I understand that if I fail to comply with my assigned clinical rotational assignment, I may earn a failing grade in the clinical course. I further understand that if I choose to withdraw from the program's clinical phase for any reason and reapply to the Southern University at Shreveport Radiologic Technology Program, that my Application will be considered with all other applicants. Students must sign below indicating acknowledgment and agreement to all clinical rotational shift assignments.
