TRIO Student Support Services Celebrates Black History Month with a Motivational Seminar

The TRIO SSS Motivational Seminar and Black History Celebration was pleasingly supported and well attended on Tuesday, February 10, 2015, in the Jesse Stone Lecture Hall at 10:30 A.M. – SSS celebration Theme was “Focus, Believe, and Achieve”. SSS Student, Helena Hollingsworth wonderfully presided as two other SSS students, Calvin Davenport and Denita Washington, Miss SUSLA 2014–15, dramatically shared moments of poetry. The melodious voice of Ms. Brenda Wimberly was so inspirational and thought-provoking as she delivered the song, “If I Can Help Somebody”. The guest speaker, Council Jerry Bowman, Jr., togged our heartstrings as he shared the struggles of his favorite hero, the late Commissioner/Councilwoman Joyce Bowman, his mother. Councilman Bowman’s shared his desire to inspire the youth of the community. This were reinforcements to our main objective. Councilman Jerry Bowman, Jr. said, "With a lot of youth that I speak to, they seem to give up so quickly because of small things. But I think if they knew some of the things, that my mom struggled with or even some things I struggled with, that they would see things differently and motivate themselves to keep to going on the right path".
