Holiday Greetings

From Student Support Services, Staff

The holiday season is a time when we remember the blessings of the past year and look forward with eager anticipation to new opportunities that await us. We pause to give thanks for the many students, colleagues, friends, and family members who make our lives so rich and full. We ask for the grace and wisdom to serve this wonderful group of students in Student Support Services with integrity and courage.

As you enjoy friends and family both near and far, SSS wish you many special moments, and a holiday filled with peace and joy.

We wish you all peace and joy during the Christmas Season and throughout the New Year.

Deloris Surles-Transfer Specialist

Trio Students: Complete your Associate's Degree

When your transfer strategies to a four-year institution/ university are not working, please come see D. Surles in Trio Student Support Services located in the Fine Arts Building, Room C-15, phone number 318-670-9325 or may be contacted via dsurles@susla.edu. Graduating on time may not be easy, but it can be achieved if you are focused and study smart and work hard. Each spring semester (April) the Trio SSS department hosts a Transfer Fair for Trio Student Support Services graduates. The Transfer Fair will help ease the transfer process, saving you the student time and money in the long run. We look forward to your participation in the SSS Transfer Fair, Spring 2016.

Dear Students,

1. I trust you.
2. I believe in you.
3. You are cared for.
4. You are listened to.
5. You are important.
6. You will succeed.
