MISSION: Southern University at Shreveport, a unit of the Southern University and A&M College System, is a historically black comprehensive community college serving northwest Louisiana and beyond. The school is committed to teaching and preparing traditional and non-traditional students for degree attainment, transfer, work force, continuous learning and self-improvement. This preparation is available through multiple delivery methods and instructional sites for students seeking certificates, technical diplomas and associate degrees.

ACADEMICS: Southern University at Shreveport provides a university parallel college transfer program designed to meet the requirements for lower division of four-year college or university programs. We offer one- and two-year career programs designed to meet the demand for technicians, semi-professional workers, and skilled craftsmen for employment in industry, business, the professions, and government. The university offers associate degrees in art, sciences, applied sciences, and certificate programs.

STUDENT LIFE: The university's Office of Student Activities and Services is a viable and integral part of student life. It provides the general student body, faculty, staff, and surrounding community with an opportunity to experience a unique facet of academic pursuit by providing cultural, social, and educational activities. These services are conducive to the learning, social interaction and experiences of students while matriculating at Southern University at Shreveport. Student organizations include band, cheerleading, Student Government Association, and more.

ATHLETICS: Southern University at Shreveport offers intercollegiate basketball for men and women through the Louisiana Community Colleges Athletic Conference (LCCAC). The men and women's teams compete in Division I basketball and are sanctioned by the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) through Region #23. In addition to basketball, the university has co-ed cheerleading, a dance team and band.

COST/AID: Full-time students who attend Southern University Shreveport and take 12 credit hours can expect to pay $327 to $543 per class. The average cost for books is $65 per credit hour. Tuition, fees and books cost approximately $2,950 for the full term. The university offers a wide range of scholarships, grants, work-study opportunities, and loans from federal and state sources to assist students in funding their education.
